Life Insurance Industry supports and services Nurses & Good Samaritans

September 6, 2019 – Statement by Mary A. Griffin, President and CEO of the Life Insurance Council of New York re: Circular Letter 9 of 2019

“LICONY applauds the nurses and Good Samaritans who play a valuable role in protecting vulnerable members of their communities from opioid overdoses every day. Our organization has no objections to the guidance outlined in Circular Letter 9 of 2019, since we believe that it largely reflects the practices already being utilized by our life insurance company members.”
